ISSUE 2 JULY 2011

Locals supporting locals...

FEATURE ARTICLE

Dear Reader,

Your local small business shopping village is dedicated to giving back to the community with positive acts of love and generosity.

Each issue, we will endeavour to support a particular group, organisation or individual in our community with a donation from the collective participating shops and your kind support of them. We also strive to encourage them and highlight their good works.

It is rare in life to come across people that I describe as the salt of the earth. Human beings who are generous, loving and kind beyond any comprehensible meaning of the word.

Last issue we met such a lady and in this issue I'd like you all to meet another lovely lady in our local community named Roslyn.

Roslyn has been a foster parent for over 40 years looking after more than 50 children who have come through her home.

She currently has three under her care at the moment. One young boy in particular is blind with cerebral palsy and is undergoing a complex leg straightening procedure in an attempt to allow him to walk.

"The money donated will help with even small things like hospital parking and petrol," explained Roslyn.

We are blessed to have such people in our community and we wish Roslyn and the young child the most success with the up and coming procedure.

John the Chemist presents local lovely lady Roslyn a cheque on behalf of the business.

'What did I win??'

Excited after winning my hamper, I tuck my little boy into his new blue blanket from The Chemist as I hop into the shower and immerse myself into Gardner's exotic Moroccan oil hair products.

I then wrap myself into my beautiful blue wool scarf from Full Of Beans and don my perfectly pretty white golf shoes and cutesy socks from IV Play ready for a day on the green!

I take a last look at the mantle displaying my new frame (already with photo of my boy) courtesy of John The Chemist flanked by my gorgeous new vase from Full Of Beans.

It's going to be a good day!

Day over as I glow from my personal training sessions at Active and I roll into the shower lighting my sweet scented candle and rejuvenating myself with the oh-so-smooth massage oil from Pampered. I am now ready to tuck into a superb gourmet pizza from La Vera washed down with a glass (or two) of French champagne from The Bottle-O.

Dinner over and I simply can't resist tucking into a chocolate (or two) from the great Darrell Lea range at John's, Our Chemist!

Heaven...and I found it all at Carss Park!

Purchase any product from the participating local businesses and go into the raffle to win this great prize!
